Today, The Job Show™ and The Job Show TV™ have been shortlisted for the Lloyds Bank Positive Social Impact Awards for the 2016 Lloyds Bank National Business Awards. In just over 3 years and 35 shows nationwide at Premiership football clubs, the Cambridgeshire based fastest growing face-to-face quality recruitment and careers event The Job Show™ has recently made TV history by launching The Job Show TV™ - a one hour long recruitment and careers programme on Ideal World Shopping Channel making it possible to 'shop for a job' in the comfort of your own home!

Caroline Connaughton MD/Co-founder and Victoria Clarke Director/Co-founder jointly said:
"It's a hat-trick! We feel privileged and proud to be chosen as finalists three years in a row in the prestigious Lloyds Bank National Business Awards - in particular for The Lloyds Bank Positive Social Impact Award which highlights a range of social impact initiatives that can bring to life a community and make a difference. To be aligned with so many worthy finalists and awarding us again this recognition will no doubt give us even more determination to go from strength-to-strength, and produce even more rewarding and successful recruitment events backed by many more TV shows to improve recruitment opportunities in the UK and Worldwide. Thank you to the Lloyds Bank National Business Awards."

Stewart Craig General Commercial Manager for Ideal World Shopping Channel went on to say:
"Congratulations to Caroline, Victoria, and the team at The Job Show, but to be honest we were not surprised, as when we were approached by The Job Show to support and promote their amazing Recruitment Events, we knew that this was something very special."

Ideal World is a TV Shopping Channel that reaches into 26million homes in the UK, and this Partnership is a First, bringing 57 minutes of Live TV which can literally change people's lives.

The ability to describe Careers and the Recruiting Companies in such depth enables viewers to make informed decisions on their next career move and, most importantly, register for their local event, where they can meet, "Face to Face" their next employer. We are proud to be associated with The Job Show TV™ and to be a part of their success."

The finalists were chosen from the hundreds of businesses that entered or were nominated across 18 award categories. They will now prepare for live presentations to an expert judging panel who will decide the overall winners.

Described as “the Oscars of great British business” by David Cameron, former Prime Minister, this year’s prestigious award ceremony will take place on Tuesday 15th November, at the Grosvenor House, Park Lane, where the winners will be revealed.

For the first time, RT Hon Conor McGinn MP recently hosted a reception for the Lloyds Bank National Business Awards at the House of Commons. This enabled finalists to meet fellow entrants, the National Business Awards Advisory Board members, judges (who they will present to in September) and sponsors of each category.

Tom Broughton, Group Brand Director of the Lloyds Bank National Business Awards said: “Due to the high number of entries for this years’ awards, narrowing the entries down to 140 finalists was a difficult task. But through a thorough and comprehensive judging process, the selected finalists demonstrate exceptional quality and diversity across a range of business sectors within the UK. We are now looking forward to the next step of the process and meeting some of the finalists face-to-face.”
